The Federation of Economic Development Association (FEDA) is a membership-based organization focused on promoting economic growth in India. Economic development professionals throughout the state, along with individuals and companies in related economic development fields, work together with the FEDA staff and board of directors to help positively influence country legislation and industrial growth. With cutting edge policy research and advisory to National and State governments on trade issues, FEDA is one of the leading non-profit organizations with established credentials for enhancing economic development.

FEDA stand in point of Economical growth and we serve as a facilitator, enabling trade and investment between both concerns either government or a private investor. FEDA have assisted in building partnerships through our consulting and advisory services for a large base of clients, which includes the Government of India, corporate clientele and non-governmental bodies.

In FEDA our partner and member base comprises of a strong national as well as global network of entrepreneurs, businesses, investors and traders. Geographically, we have a reasonably strong base in many countries like India, China, UAE, Qatar, Canada, USA, Australia, and UK and have offices in all the major industrial provinces like New Delhi, Bangalore, Chennai, Kolkata, Mumbai and Dubai, Alberta-Canada. The India offices have been regularly facilitating high level delegations ‘to and from’ many countries on trade and economic summits of national, bilateral and economic importance.
